MODERN REQUIREMENTS IN LEARNING FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Abstract: Today, learning a language is a big deal for us profit by opening the door. Regardless of the financial or social aspect, in a foreign language helps us to "real" contact with people. Global cooperation and bilingualism for the world, people It is not necessary, of course, it is said to be the demand of the time. foreign in three articles it talks about the benefits of knowing their languages.

Key word: foreign language, memory, word, pronunciation, international business, state development, psychology, foreign language literature.

Currently, the total number of languages in the world is about 6500 thousand. Learning an additional language is not only for representatives of this field, but also for another profession also necessary for owners. For example, let's take business people as an example, they to develop and maintain a strong position in the global economy very important. If you are a businessman, you are good at the psychology and language of foreign customers it is very easy to achieve if he can understand. That is why many companies are foreign they are looking for candidates who know the language. Language other than financial income study provides a unique experience for travelers.

Our journey if we know a foreign language will also be cheaper. Knowing a foreign language is very important to us when we go to different countries benefits. Another who likes to travel to different parts of the world people who are interested in people's culture, traditions, lifestyle learning a foreign language is very difficult. You can ask local people for places you can find it easily, you can easily explain your wishes and desires, you can order anything you want. If from the git service it will cost you extra if you use it. Knowing a foreign language is another benefit the good thing is that you can make friends in other countries. This I think it's great.

Studies of linguists show that learning an additional language develops the brain. Human memory as a result of learning two or more languages activates. Learning a language is better than listening to the radio and watching TV is a useful function for It doesn't matter how old we are learning a language has a positive effect on our mental activity. Learning foreign languages One of the unexpected benefits is that language learning is in every aspect of our lives has the ability to align us to victory.

The results of research show that people who have learned a foreign language have a wide view of the world will be. In this way, they can easily solve any problem situations ability is formed. People who have learned a foreign language are different from others thinks freely and fluently. Another benefit of learning a foreign language is that learning foreign languages is the reason for the high level of analytical ability of people will be. The conversation of people who have learned many languages is very interesting and interesting It has been proven through experiments. including critical. Well, we are foreign by which methods we learn languages.

"Knowledge acquired in childhood is engraved in stone is like a pattern." This expression did not appear in our nation for nothing. This is the reason for the children it is necessary to start learning the language from a young age. As we all know language learning is a long-term process. Hence the old rule and using easy and interesting methods without getting attached to styles will be effective. First of all, a strong will and strict discipline are needed to learn a language it is enough to have a based plan. Movies and series with subtitles in that language must watch. At the standard level, of course. 30-40 words per day it is necessary to get used to memorization. He is studying the thoughts that pass through your mind Constantly translating into your language is also an effective method is considered.

Learn only what you need in grammar. Memorized, but in practice The unused rule is like buying a car, but putting it in the garage without using it and you walk to work, this is a similar situation. For example, there are many in English we have memorized the wrong verbs, but we do not use all of them in practice. Any It should be one of the easiest ways to learn a language. So pay attention. It's simple what it consists of. Possessive+partial+complementary. The use of these three parts in grammar is the language enough to learn. The goal of learning any language is to be able to speak it. Therefore, study grammar topics that are used in everyday life.

Now the era of advanced technologies is fruitful of these possibilities audio books can also be used using Rather than theory practice brings more success. Looking back on our childhood we were able to explain our wishes and desires to our parents. We just listening to them and repeating them is nothing for that we did not use grammar and theories. Linguistic scientists in 2016 It has been proved that it is easy to learn the language by listening. This method is more traditional was more effective than the methods. Listening and Comprehension. You can understand some language does not mean that you know the language perfectly. Along with your understanding you must also be able to speak. Pronunciation is very important. Try to repeat should be done.

Vocabulary learning - Even in this case, memorizing vocabulary by crying is not an effective method. Most when memorizing vocabulary frequently used words should be memorized. Statistics are in English the 200 words used make up half of the correspondence written in English. Therefore, it is necessary to memorize the most frequently used words. So, from memorizing the dictionary then, it is necessary to learn better by making different sentences with their participation.

Pronunciation- every language has its own pronunciation. According to linguists, more than 150 sounds so that each language uses more than 30 sounds. As a result, in the pronunciation of each language makes a big difference. After learning the language, it is possible to improve the pronunciation listening to a foreign language as much as possible. It is necessary to watch various movies and videos in this language. When listening to a song in a foreign language, you can use it for another purpose. That is, in that language find the lyrics and translate them into your language. Not only do you understand the lyrics, maybe you will increase your vocabulary.

Linguistic scientists have divided language learning into 4 large groups: reading, writing, listening and speaking. Reading is studied in a foreign language the ability to understand the text. Listening is the ability to understand the text heard in a foreign language. Writing is the ability to write a text in a foreign language. Speaking is expressing your thoughts in a foreign language ability to do. To achieve these four things, master the three essentials need: grammar, vocabulary and pronunciation. Here are the tools to learn these three things you analyze rapid learning through.

The most important thing is that you can learn it, everything is simple, not so difficult, the language is to realize that you are not inferior to others in learning. It's up to you After you gain confidence, you can start learning the language. Many today language courses are organized 2 or 3 times a week. Therefore, it is next in the language learning process There are cases of forgetting previous lessons before classes. And this is language learning slows down the process. That is why the language learning process continues every day should and repetition accelerates language learning.

In addition, the newspaper of the foreign language you are learning and It is also useful to read articles regularly. Nowadays, English has become a world language. That's why many people want to learn English is trying Knowing English allows us to acquire knowledge in other fields allows because many scientific works are written in English. People who know the language will have the opportunity to read such works in their original language. Moreover all social networks are covered in English. English is a technical language It's no exaggeration, because the instructions for using any technique given in English. In short, knowing your profession is an additional language Knowledge acts as another magic key for us. It doesn't matter which language it is I wish great success and great achievements for all language learners i will stay.
